No taken as an indication that the South is rapidly recovering from the depression caused through difficulty in marksting its cotton.

The cash reserves show an increase of $1,300,000, Chicago and Philadelphia reporting the largest gains. New York, Philadelphia and Chicago reported the COTTON EASES UP

OVER WEEK END

Cotton was quiet, and business appeared to be chiefly of a week-end character, resulting in comparatively narrow and irregular fluctuations, with the close steady 3 points lower to 2 banks.

Philadelphin and Chicago reported the largest gains in the amounts of gold held. New York, however, reported a net withdrawal of $1,300,000 by the Chicago bank. Indicating that the farmers are getting the benefit of the last minute clause inserted in the currency bill, permitting farmers' ninety days paper to be rediscounted by the reserve banks, an increase of $340,000 is reported the largest gains in the amounts of gold held. New York, however, reported a net withdrawal of $1,300,000 by the Chicago bank.

narrow and irregular fluctuations, with the close steady 3 points lower to 2 points higher.

Relatively stendy cables and favorable reports from the drygoods trade were followed by some covering at the start of business here, and after opening 3 to 4 points higher active months sold up another point or two. There was no aggressive buying, however, and prices soon turned easier under realizing for over Sunday, or some scattered seelling, which appeared to be inspired by improved weather in the Southwest and rather a less favorable view of European peace possibilities for the time being. Trading tapered off on a scale down, and prices rallied a few points from the lowest in the late trading. banks.

Deposits showed a gain of more than $3,000,000, with the largest increments in New York and St. Louis. About $500,000 were paid in on capital accounts by the various banks during the week, in advances made on the third instalment, which will be due on May 2.
